After deducting the expenditure incurred by the North Eastern Council (NEC) and amount released from the NLCPR during the same period, a sum of Rs. 2853.97 crores was available in the NLCPR account as on 31.03.2002. An inter-ministerial consultation process has since been initiated to make an assessment regarding amount to be contributed by various Central Ministries/ Departments to the NLCPR during 2002-03. During 2002-03, Rs. 550.00 crores were released from the NLCPR for various projects in the North East. The project-wise/year-wise details of release of funds from the NLCPR are available on the website: www.northeast.nic.in

(b) Yes, Sir. Separate budgetary provision is required for utilizing the amount accrued to the NLCPR.

(c) Each Ministry/Department, unless specifically exempted from making a provision, is required to earmark 10% of its gross budgetary support for the Central Plan, for projects/schemes in the North Eastern Region. In addition, from the amounts surrendered to NLCPR, funds are made available in the budget of the DONER, in a phased manner, for projects/schemes in the Region.
